PARTNER DFB-POKAL

Volkswagen – We drive football

Football sponsorship has a long tradition at Volkswagen. The company is actively engaged with clubs based near its production sites, in amateur football, in cultural projects and in fighting for diversity and equality within the sport. On top of that, Volkswagen has been an official partner of the DFB-Pokal since 2012. Together with the DFB, Volkswagen has created the “DFB-Pokal Walk of Fame”, a unique exhibition at Berlin’s Olympiastadion to honour Germany’s domestic cup and its heroes.

The major partnership between Volkswagen and the German Football Association (DFB) began on 1st January 2019. Until at least the end of July 2024, Volkswagen will remain the official mobility partner of the DFB and its national teams, as well as supporting the 21 state associations made up of around 25,000 clubs. On an international level, Volkswagen is an official partner of UEFA’s international competitions, including the UEFA Women’s EUROs in England in summer 2022. Additionally, Volkswagen supports a number of national football associations around the world alongside the DFB, such as world champions France, the Netherlands, USA, Switzerland, Austria, Finland and Denmark.

Professional football isn’t the only focus, however; grassroots football in particular provides the link between Volkswagen and “Volkssport” – the people’s game. Following its motto “Football is all of us”, the company supports football from the grassroots level all the way to the very top. Volkswagen also promotes diversity and equal opportunities in football. For example, the “a chance to play” initiative (<https://a-chance-to-play.de>) was created together with the charity “terre des homes” to offer a brighter future to more than 30,000 disadvantaged children in Brazil, Germany, India, Rwanda and South Africa thanks to donations from Volkswagen staff.

1. Opta Facts

Sport-Club Freiburg – RB Leipzig

21st May 2022

- This will be the 15th meeting between RB Leipzig and SC Freiburg in competitive football. RB go into the final on a five-game unbeaten run against SC in all competitions (W2 D3 – including two 1-1 draws in the Bundesliga this season). SC have never beaten Leipzig away from Freiburg (D3, L4 – have all been away games). Christian Streich has been in charge of Freiburg for all 14 previous matches.
- SC Freiburg are the 40th different club to reach a DFB-Pokal final. The last team to win their first Pokal final was Bayer 04 Leverkusen in 1993 (against Hertha BSC's reserves). Each of the last four first-time finalists since 1993 have lost without scoring, including RB Leipzig in 2019 (3-0 against Bayern).
- RB Leipzig have reached the DFB-Pokal final for the third time in the last four seasons – the most of any club during this period. They have lost both finals – only four clubs were beaten in their first three finals (1. FC Kaiserslautern, Alemannia Aachen, Fortuna Düsseldorf and MSV Duisburg).
- SC Freiburg have made the final of the DFB-Pokal despite playing all five of their games this season away from home. The last team to manage this was Werder Bremen on their way to lifting the title in 2008/09. Just like Bremen back then (1-1, 3-1 on penalties), SC got past Hamburger SV in the semi-finals (3-1).
- RB Leipzig won all five of their games on the way to the final in normal time for the first time in their history. Since the start of 1993/94, only FC Bayern have won all six matches within 90 minutes in a Pokal campaign (in 2005, 2013 and 2020).
- RB Leipzig only let in one goal on their route to the final, same as they did last season. No team has faced fewer shots on average per game than them in the Pokal this term (5.6), whilst only Borussia Dortmund had a lower Expected Goals Against value (0.4) than RB (0.6).
- The final will be Christian Streich's 396th competitive game in charge of Freiburg and RB Leipzig's 396th match in professional football. Since the Bundesliga was founded, only Karlsruhe's Winfried Schäfer has had more games in professional football with one club under his belt (the final was his 406th) going into his first Pokal final with them (lost 1-0 to Kaiserslautern in 1996).
- Freiburg's Lucas Höler is the top provider in the Pokal this season with five assists. He has set up a goal on average every 70 minutes, the best ratio among players to have played at least 250 minutes, as is his average of setting up 2.3 shots per game.
- Freiburg's Vincenzo Grifo has scored four goals in the DFB-Pokal this season to equal the club record for a single campaign (Nils Petersen in 2015/16, Oliver Freund and Martin Braun both in 1993/94 all scored four too). He has bettered his Expected Goals Value of 2.1 by almost two goals (1.9) – a competition high in 2021/22.
- 14 different players have had a hand in at least one goal for RB Leipzig in the DFB-Pokal this season – a competition high this term and a new club record for RB in a Pokal campaign. Since detailed data collection began in 2008/09, only Bremen (in 2019/20) and Bayern (2009/10) have had more players directly involved in at least one goal in a single Pokal campaign (both 15).

2. Analysis

The 79th DFB-Pokal final

SC Freiburg and RB Leipzig will contest the 79th DFB-Pokal final on 21st May 2022. The final has always taken place at the Olympiastadion in Berlin since 1985, making this the 38th consecutive final to be played there (44th in total). Either Leipzig or Freiburg will become the 26th different winner of the cup. Here’s an overview of the record winners and finalists:

Most DFB-Pokal titles
Rank	Club	Titles	Finals
1	FC Bayern München	20	24
2	SV Werder Bremen	6	10
3	FC Schalke 04	5	12
	Borussia Dortmund	5	10
	Eintracht Frankfurt	5	8
6	1. FC Köln	4	10
6	1. FC Nürnberg	4	6

This will be the first final since 1993 between two teams that have never won the Pokal before. Back then, Bayer 04 Leverkusen defeated Hertha BSC’s reserves 1-0.

Route to the final

SC Freiburg’s run to the final
Round	Opponent	Result	H/A
First round	FC Würzburger Kickers	1-0	A
Second round	VfL Osnabrück	2-2 (a.e.t., 3-2 on penalties)	A
Round of 16	TSG Hoffenheim	4-1	A
Quarterfinals	VfL Bochum 1848	2-1 (a.e.t.)	A
Semi-finals	Hamburger SV	3-1	A

RB Leipzig’s run to the final
Round	Opponent	Result	H/A
First round	SV Sandhausen	4-0	A
Second round	SV Babelsberg 03	1-0	A
Round of 16	FC Hansa Rostock	2-0	H
Quarterfinals	Hannover 96	4-0	A
Semi-finals	1. FC Union Berlin	2-1	H

SC Freiburg had effectively booked their place in their first ever DFB-Pokal by half time against HSV (3-1). Nils Petersen (11’), Nicolas Höfler (17’) and Vincenzo Grifo (35’) had the game wrapped up early on, with Hamburg only managing a late consolation goal in the 88th minute.

- This was the earliest SCF had ever scored three goals in a Pokal game (35 minutes). They also became just the second team in Pokal history to score three first-half goals away from home in a semi-final. The only other side to have managed this is FC Bayern in 1984, during a legendary 6-6 draw at Schalke (led 3-2 at the break).

Unlike Freiburg, RB Leipzig only sealed their spot in the final late on against Union Berlin. Emil Forsberg headed in the winner in the 92nd minute, after Andre Silva had cancelled out FCU’s opener (61’).

First-time finalists have had little success in recent years

Freiburg are the 40th different club to reach a DFB-Pokal final. The last club to win their first final was Bayer 04 Leverkusen in 1993 (defeated Hertha’s reserves 1-0, who were also in their first final). Since 1993, each of the last four first-time finalists have lost without scoring, including RB Leipzig in 2019 (3-0 against Bayern).

DFB-Pokal – First-time finalists since 1993/94
New finalist	Opponent	Season	Score	Result	Extra time?
VfL Wolfsburg	Borussia Mönchengladbach	1994/95	0-3	L	No
FC Energie Cottbus	VfB Stuttgart	1996/97	0-2	L	No
1. FC Union Berlin	FC Schalke 04	2000/01	0-2	L	No
RB Leipzig	FC Bayern München	2018/19	0-3	L	No
Sport-Club Freiburg	RB Leipzig	2021/22	?-?	?	?

- The last player to score for a first-time finalist was Leverkusen’s Ulf Kirsten. He got the only goal of the game in 1993 against Hertha’s reserves.

A team effort by Leipzig

Benjamin Henrichs set up Emil Forsberg in injury time of Leipzig’s semi-final win with his first assist in the Pokal this season. The Swede became RB’s ninth different goalscorer in the Pokal this term, a club record and a competition high in 2021/22.

- 14 different players have had a hand in at least one goal for RB Leipzig in the DFB-Pokal this season – a competition high this term and a new club record for RB in a Pokal campaign. Since detailed data collection began in 2008/09, only Bremen (in 2019/20) and Bayern (2009/10) have had more players directly involved in at least one goal in one Pokal campaign (both 15).

Leipzig’s defence has also been impressive once again this season:

- RB Leipzig only let in one goal on their route to the final, the same as they conceded last season en route to the final. No team has faced fewer shots on average per game than them in the Pokal this term (5.6).

Grifo and Petersen close to breaking SC records – Höler already has

Nils Petersen scored his 12th goal in the DFB-Pokal for Freiburg against HSV to draw level with Alexander Iashvili’s club record. Interestingly, the man with the most goals in Bundesliga history as a substitute has scored all of his 19 Pokal goals (for several clubs) as a starter.

- Vincenzo Grifo has scored four goals in the DFB-Pokal this season to equal the club record in a single campaign, only previously managed by Nils Petersen in 2015/16 and both Oliver Freund and Martin Braun in 1993/94.
- Freiburg’s Lucas Höler is the top provider in the Pokal this season with five assists. This is a club record since detailed data collection began in 2008/09.

A first final for both coaches

This will be the first DFB-Pokal final for both Freiburg coach Christian Streich and RB Leipzig boss Domenico Tedesco. This is the third season in a row with two coaches coming up against each other in their first Pokal finals. Dortmund's Edin Terzic beat Leipzig's Julian Nagelsmann 4-1 last season and Hansi Flick was a 4-2 winner with Bayern the year before against Peter Bosz's Leverkusen.

- Tedesco, aged 36 years and 251 days, could become the youngest coach to win the DFB-Pokal since Hans-Dieter Tippenhauer, who won the cup in 1979 with Fortuna Düsseldorf (35y and 250d).
- Domenico Tedesco has won 10 of his 11 games in the DFB-Pokal, only losing in the 2018 semi-finals with Schalke 04 against Eintracht Frankfurt (1-0 H). Since 2000, only Niko Kovac (95%) and Pep Guardiola (94%) have a higher win percentage in this competition than Tedesco (91%, same as Louis van Gaal – minimum of six games).
- The final will be Christian Streich's 396th competitive game in charge of Freiburg and RB Leipzig's 396th match in professional football. Since the Bundesliga was founded, only Karlsruhe's Winfried Schäfer has had more games in professional football with one club under his belt (the final was his 406th) going into his first Pokal final with them (lost 1-0 to Kaiserslautern in 1996).

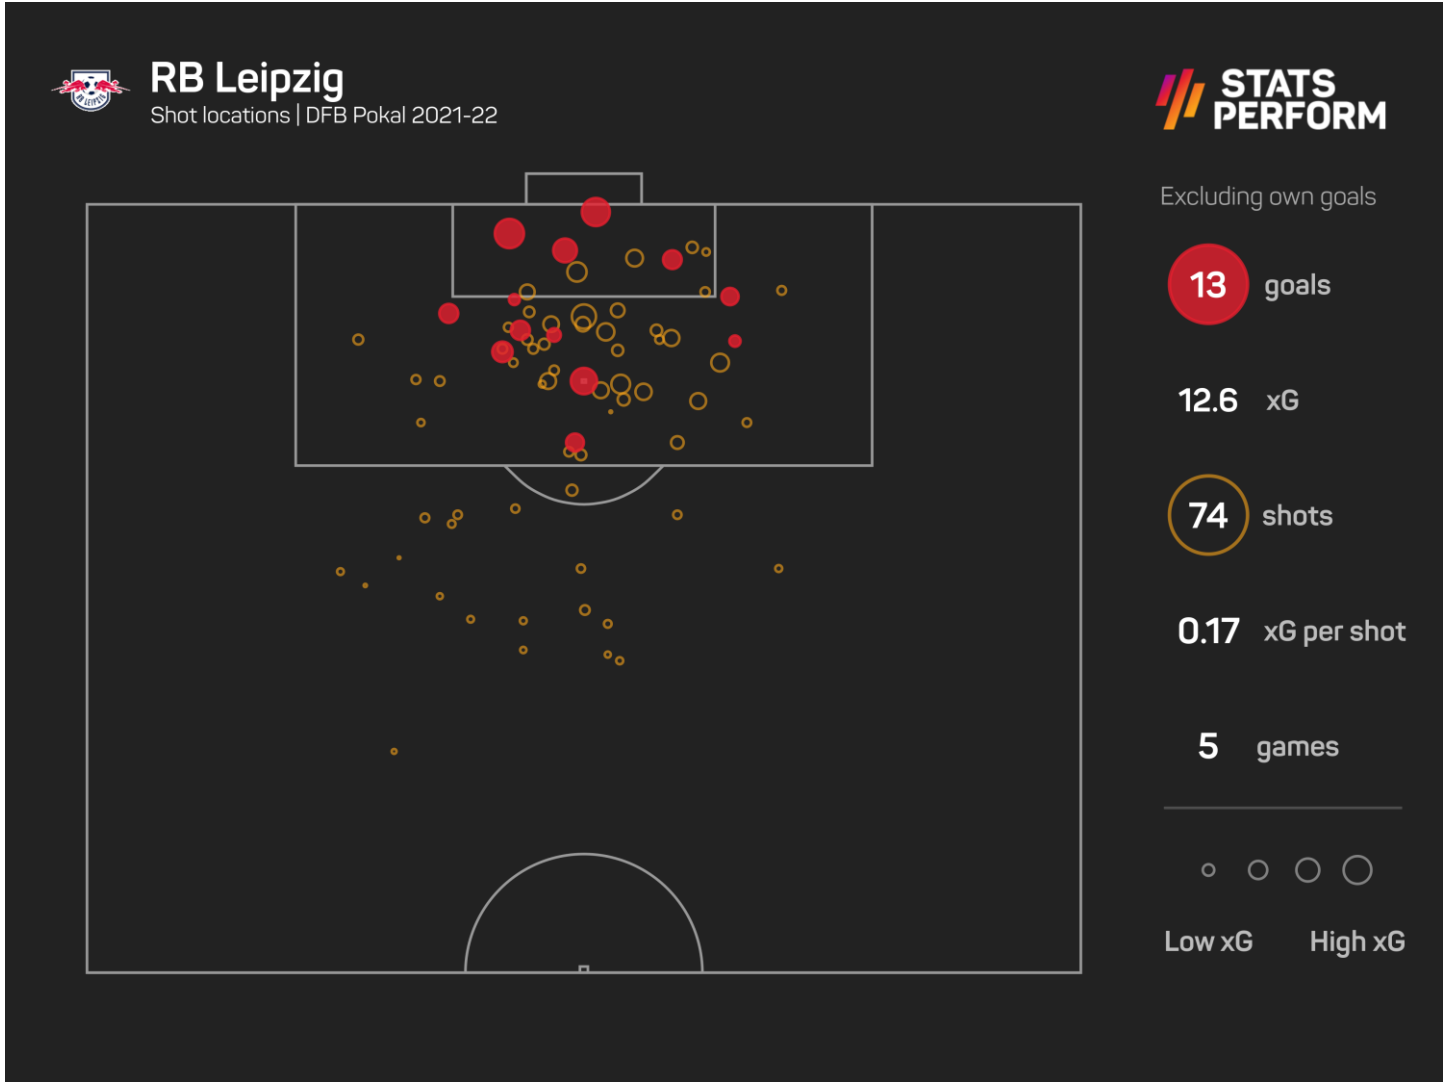

3. Head-to-Head Record – Results (all competitions)

Games	Sport-Club Freiburg wins	Draws	RB Leipzig wins	Sport-Club Freiburg goals	RB Leipzig goals
Total: 14	4	4	6	16	27
Average Goals scored per Game				3.1

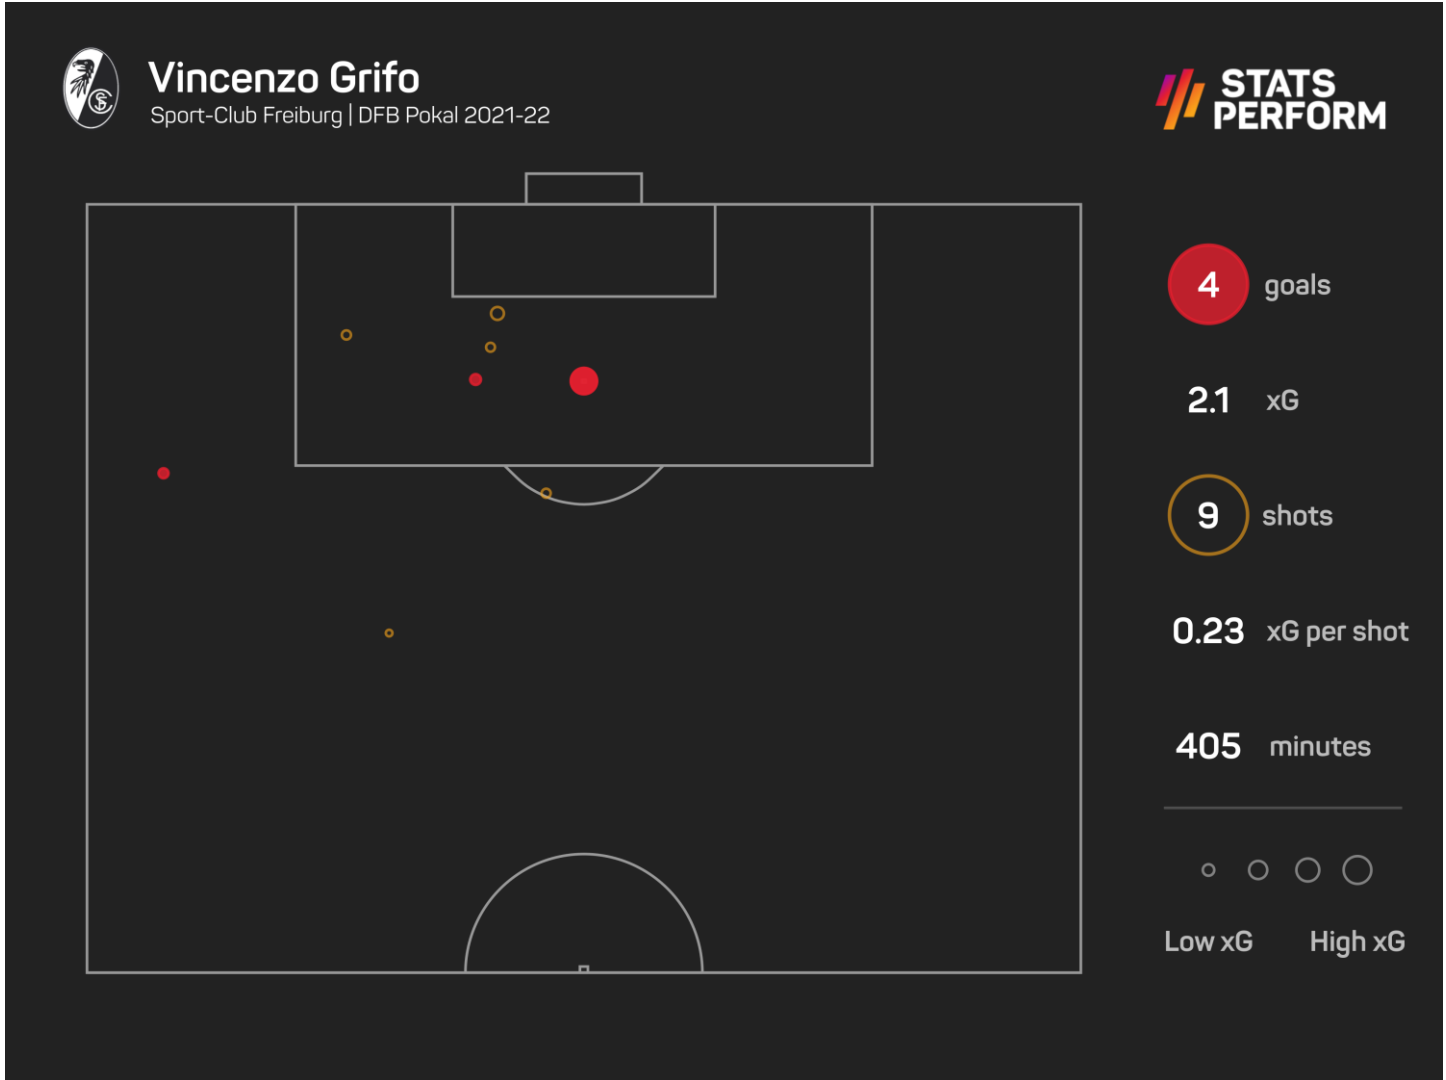

4. Expected Goals

RB Leipzig have the highest xG in the DFB-Pokal this season. They have an Expected Goals Value of 12.6 and have taken their opportunities to score 13 goals – the most of any team in this season’s competition. All 13 of them have been from inside the penalty box:

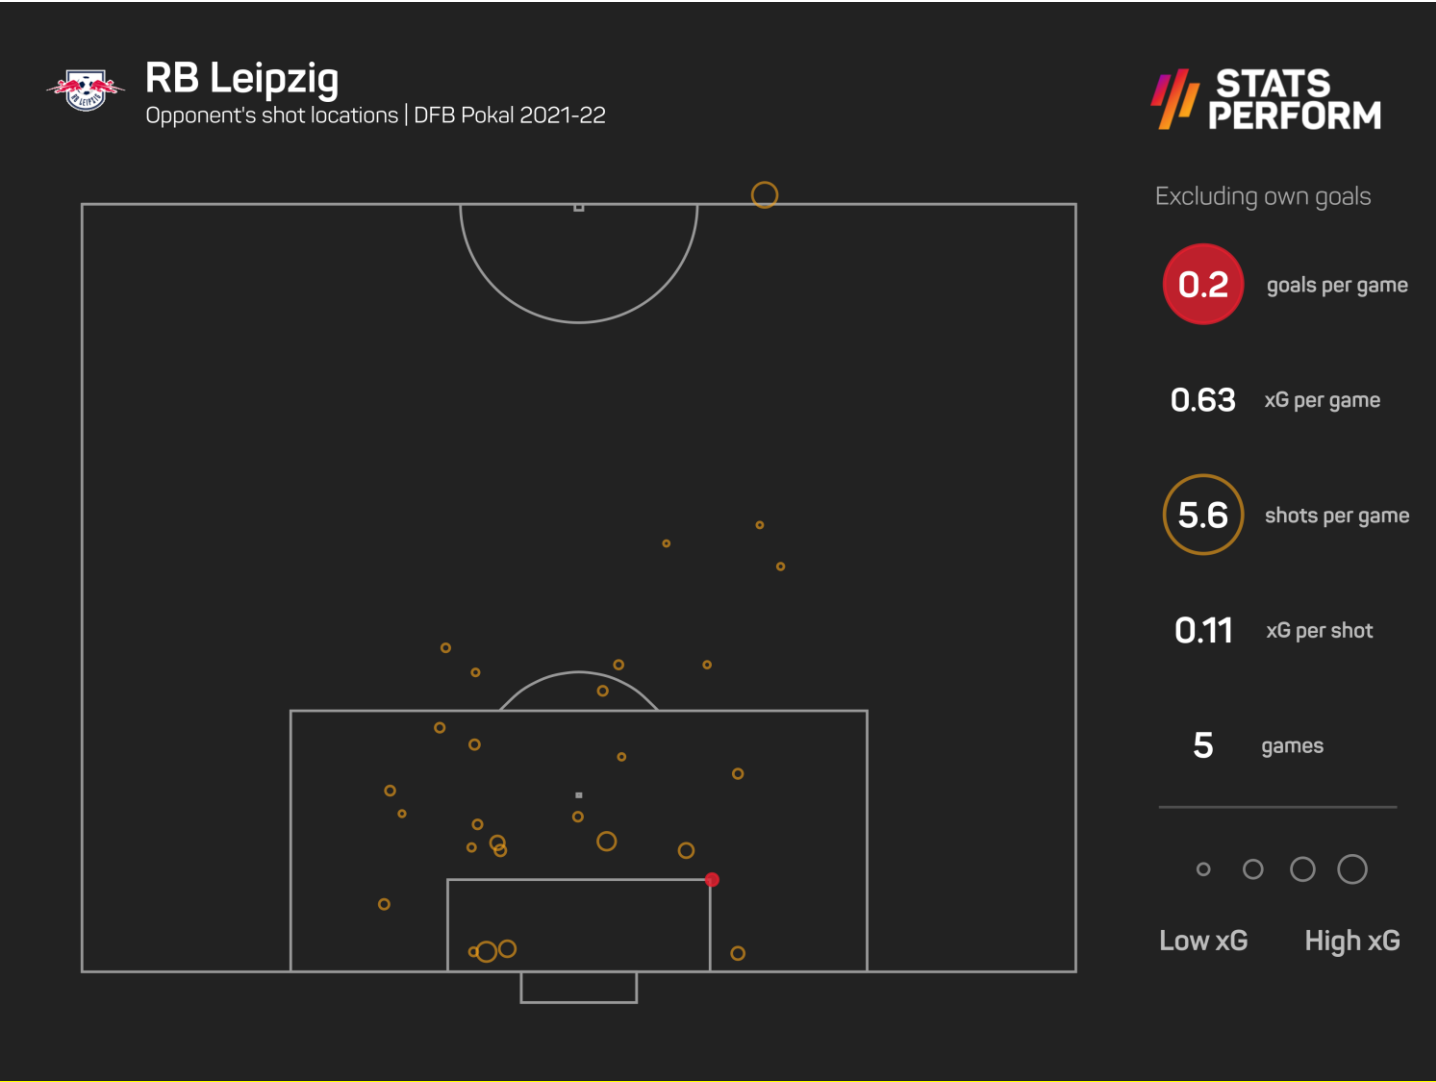

Vincenzo Grifo is Freiburg’s top goalscorer in the Pokal this season with four goals to his name. The Italian has almost bettered his Expected Goals value of 2.1 by two goals (1.9) – a competition high in 2021/22. He has scored both penalties he has taken (both 0.79 xG), whilst his other two goals have come from tricky shooting positions (0.08 xG in Osnabrück and 0.09 xG in Sinsheim). The following graphic shows where Grifo has taken his nine shots from:

5. Expected Goals Against

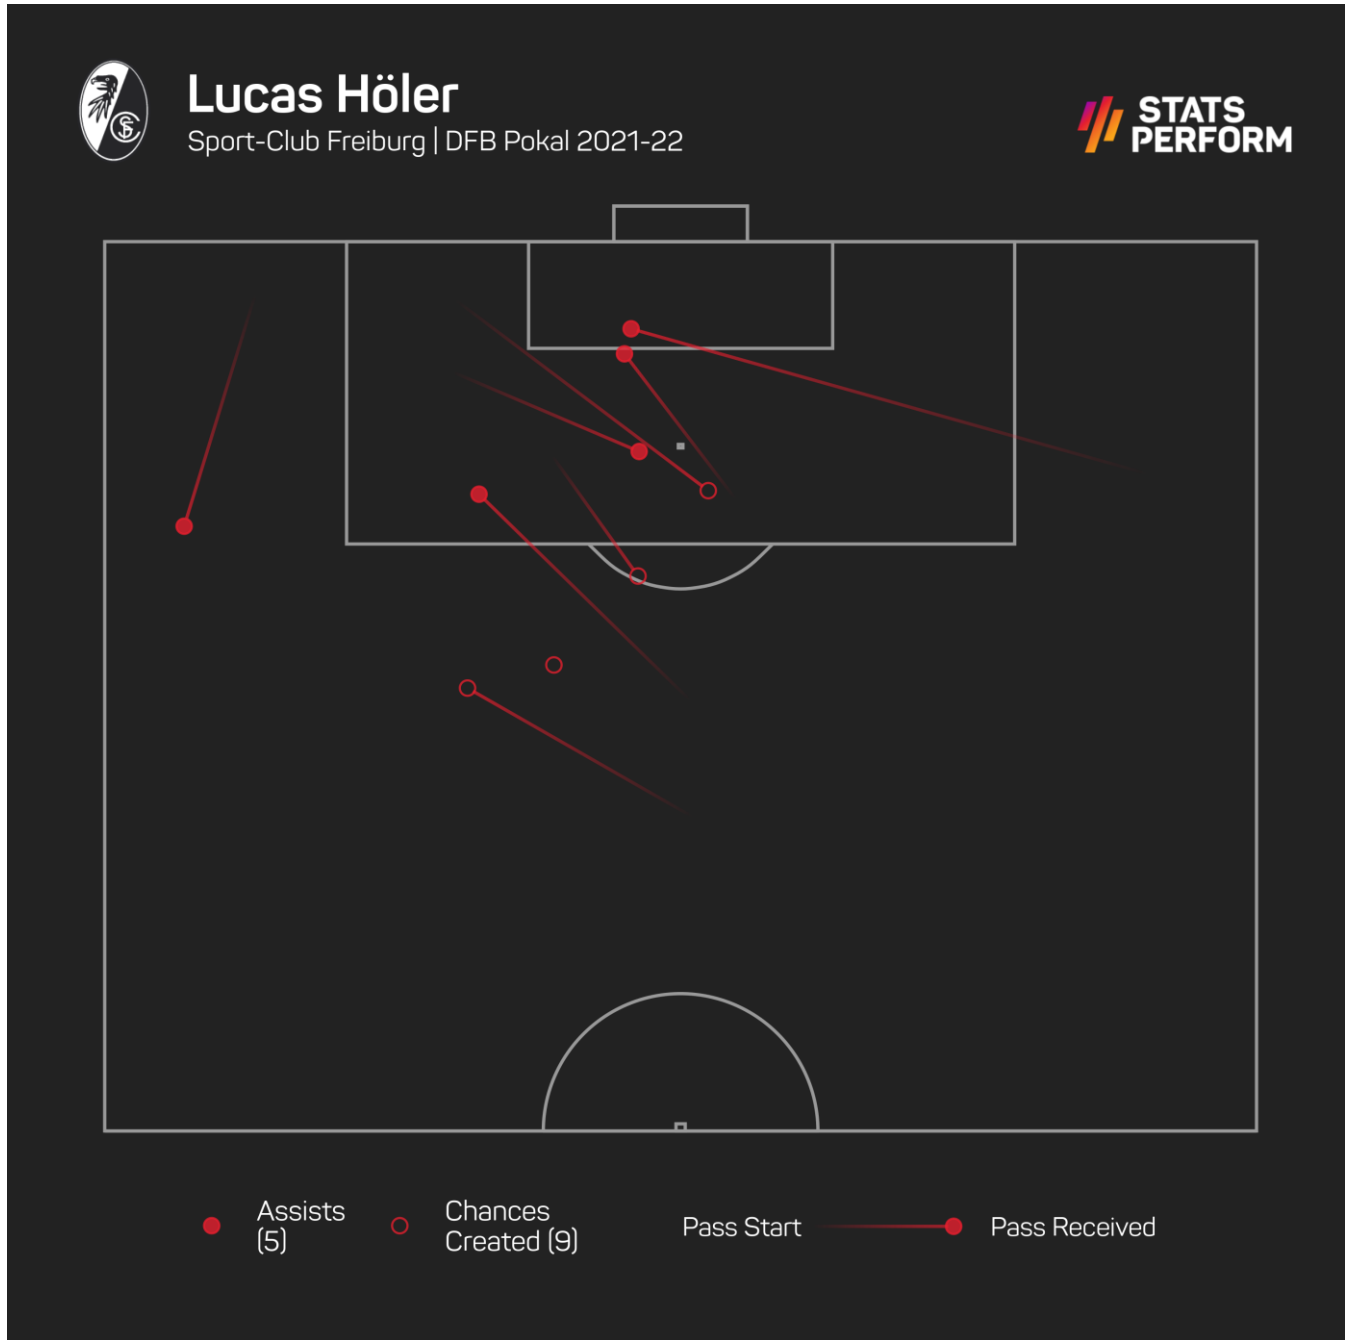

RB Leipzig have only let in one goal on their route to the final. On average, their opponents have managed just 5.6 shots against them per match. Only Borussia Dortmund have had a lower Expected Goals Against value per game (0.4) than RB (0.6). As can be seen in the graphic below, RB have faced very few shots from dangerous positions:

6. Assists

Freiburg’s Lucas Höler is the top provider in the Pokal this season with five assists, a club record since detailed data collection began in 2008/09. He has set up a goal on average every 70 minutes, the best ratio among players to have played at least 250 minutes, as is his average of setting up 2.3 shots per game. The following graphic shows from where he has set up goals or shots:

7. Keeping Goals Prevented

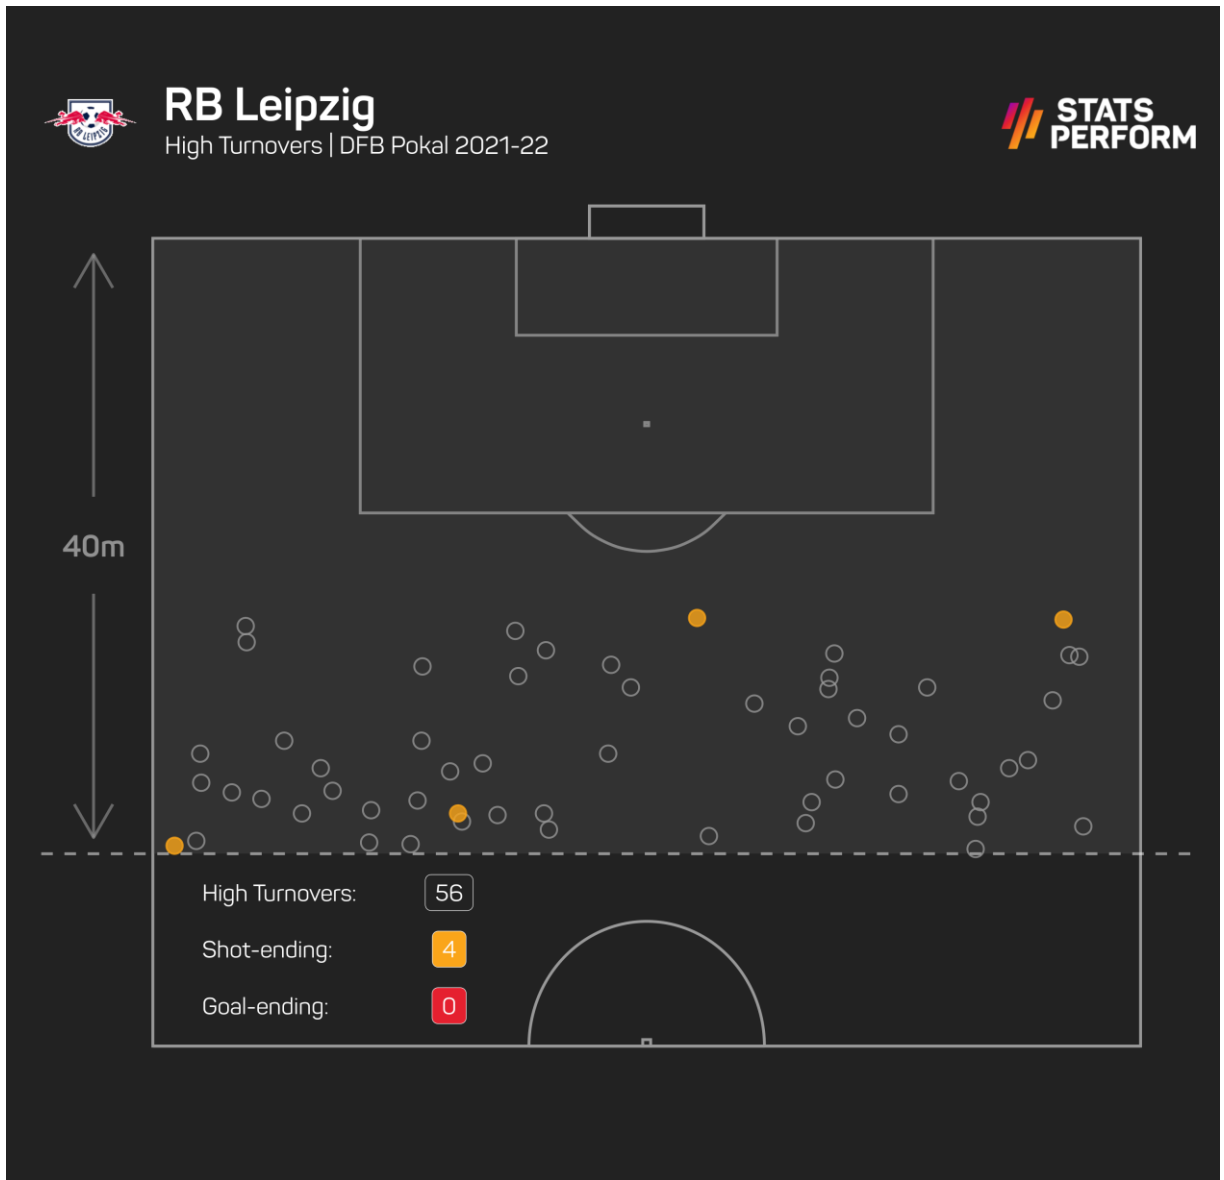

According to the Expected Goals model, Freiburg’s Mark Flekken should have conceded 3.8 more goals based on the quality of opposition shots. The SC goalkeeper, however, has only let in two goals (excluding the own goal against Hoffenheim), therefore preventing 1.8 goals. Only 1860 Munich’s Marco Hiller (3.4) and Gladbach’s Yann Sommer (3.0) have prevented more goals in the DFB-Pokal in 2021/22. The graphic below depicts the shots on Flekken’s goal:

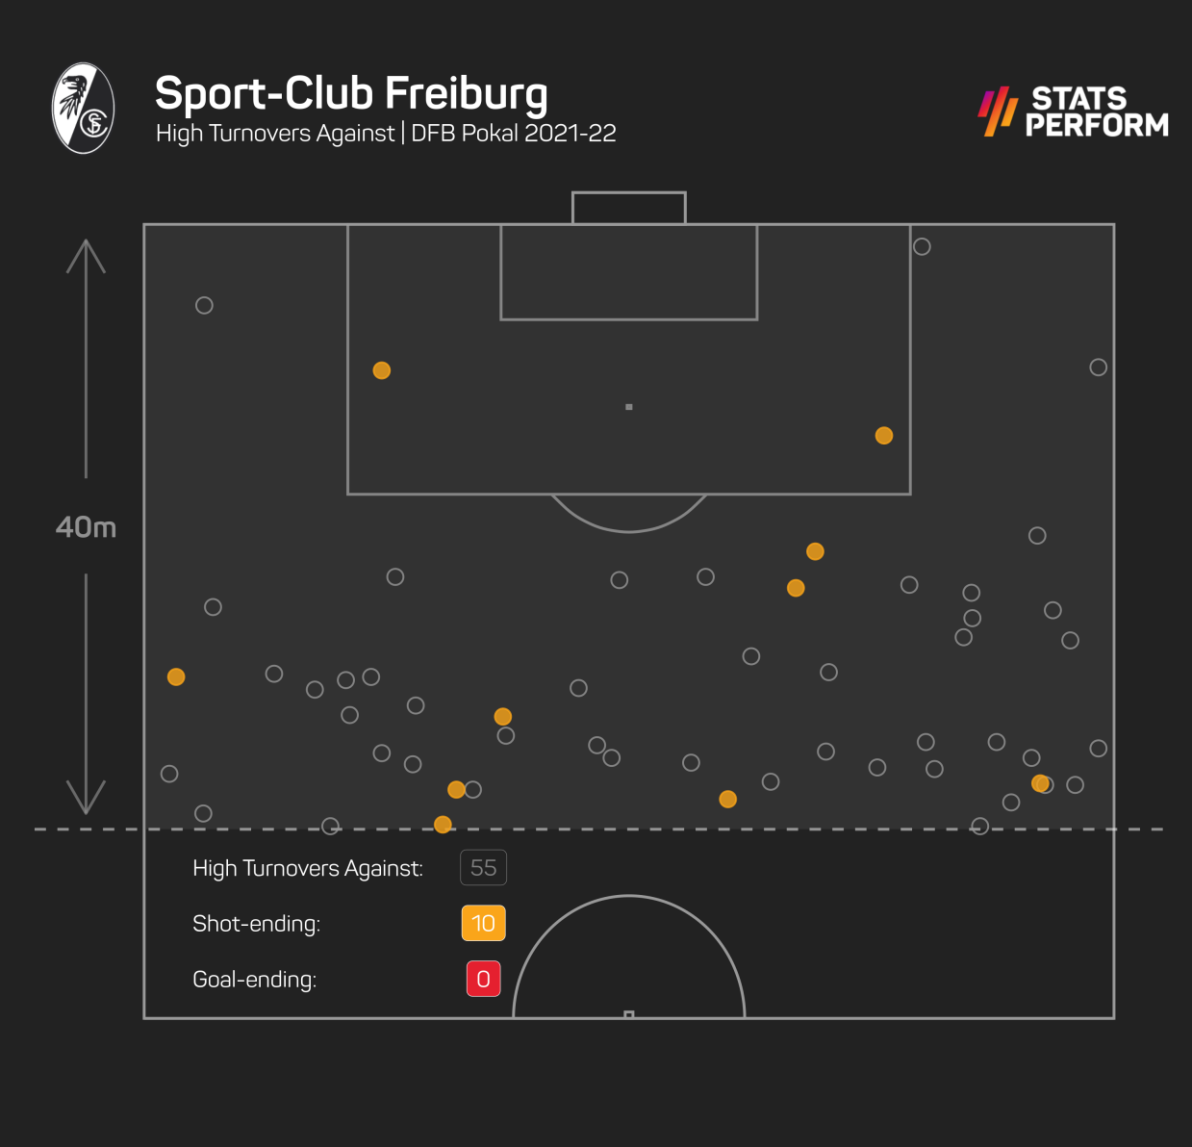

8. High Turnovers

RB Leipzig have won possession within 40 meters of the opposition’s goal on 56 occasions in the DFB-Pokal this season – only 1. FC Union Berlin have managed this more often (57 times). Even though this has only resulted in four shots for Leipzig, this statistic still highlights the way they press opponents. This graphic clearly shows in which areas of the pitch Leipzig force their opponents into losing the ball.

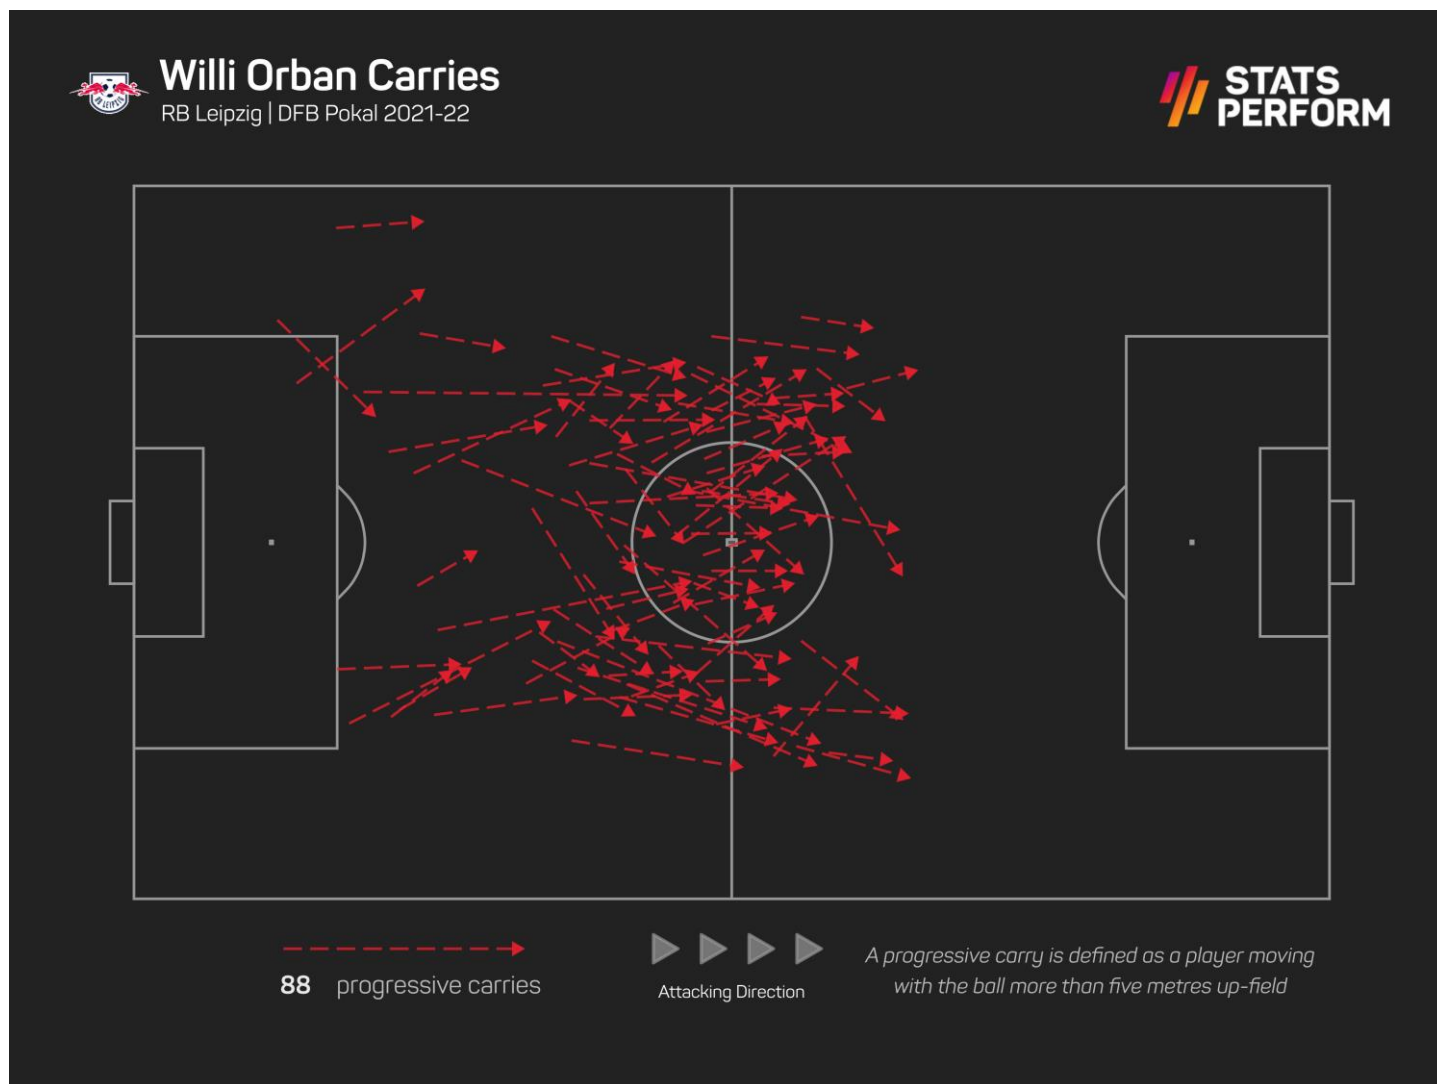

SC Freiburg, on the other hand, have been susceptible when opponents have pressed them in the Pokal this season. Their opponents have won the ball high up the pitch 55 times against them, with 10 shots coming from these turnovers – both are competition highs this term. This graphic shows that Freiburg have even lost the ball in their own box on two occasions, and both times the opposition got a shot away.

9. Progressive Carries

RB Leipzig’s Willi Orban has averaged 18 progressive carries per 90 minutes in the DFB-Pokal this season (runs longer than 5 meters forward with the ball) – this is a competition high among all players to have played at least 250 minutes. The long-serving defender, who has been at the club since 2015, often looks to carry the ball forwards in the middle of the park during build-up play, even going into the opposition half at times, as you can see in the graphic below:

Overall, only Hamburg’s Sebastian Schonlau (306) has been involved in more sequences than Willi Orban (298) this season. Of all players to have played at least 250 minutes in the Pokal this term, only his teammate Kevin Kampl (61) has been involved in more sequences on average per 90 minutes than the Hungarian (60).
