He began his career at the Volkswagen Group's headquarters in Wolfsburg in Press Planning, before becoming assistant to the Vice-Presidency.

In 2005 Vollmer moved to Bratislava (Slovakia) to head Production, and five years later was transferred to Shanghai (China) as Executive Director of Production.

In 2014 Dr. Vollmer was appointed Technical Executive Vice-President of SAIC Volkswagen, the joint venture created in 1984 between SAIC Motor and Volkswagen Group.

From 2018 to 2020 Dr. Christian Vollmer has been SEAT Executive Vice-President for Production and Logistics.

The Volkswagen Passenger Cars brand has a global presence and produces vehicles at 28 locations in 12 countries. In 2025, Volkswagen delivered about 4.7 million cars. These include bestsellers such as the Polo, T-Roc, T-Cross, Golf, Tiguan and Passat as well as the successful all-electric models of the ID. family. Last year, the company handed over around 382,000 all-electric vehicles to customers worldwide. About 170,000 people currently work at Volkswagen around the world. With its "BOOST 2030" strategy, the company is consistently driving forward its development into the most desirable brand for sustainable mobility.
